Code of Conduct
Published: 02/02/2026

Introduction

Worthogs Homebrew Club of New Mexico exists to to share knowledge of the craft and science of brewing, build our skills as brewers, and foster camaraderie focused around a shared enthusiasm for brewing and enjoying fermented beverages To effectively advance our mission, Worthogs Homebrew Club of New Mexico members and their guests must set an example by acting with honesty and integrity, conducting themselves respectfully, embracing and encouraging everyone, including newcomers and homebrewers of all experience levels. Thank you for helping to make this a welcoming club for all by agreeing to abide to this code of conduct.

Code

Worthogs Homebrew Club of New Mexico is dedicated to fostering a community open to everyone regardless of race, sex, color, religion, national origin, disability, military status, marital/familial status, political beliefs, sexual orientation, gender identity, creed, or ancestry.

We expect all members and guests consuming alcohol to be of legal drinking age and for members and guests to demonstrate responsible alcohol consumption, including but not limited to preventing driving while impaired. We also support offering non-alcoholic beverages for those who want to contribute to the club community and culture but do not drink while doing so.

Worthogs Homebrew Club of New Mexico does not tolerate harassment of members or guests in any form. All communication, language, and imagery should be respectful, cordial, and inclusive.

Members and/or visitors violating these rules may be asked to leave and may be banned from participating in future club events and meetings at the sole discretion of Worthogs Homebrew Club of New Mexico. Any complaints should be sent to info@worthogshc.com. All such complaints will be reviewed by the Worthogs Homebrew Club of New Mexico leadership, who will, in turn, determine an appropriate course of action.

Worthogs Homebrew Club is an Albuquerque based homebrew club for brewers of all experience levels and others interested in learning more about brewing. Although we primarily focus on beer, our members have a wealth of knowledge on many other types of alcohol and fermentation.
